

The HoDs and the faculties of the respective departments are accountable for the procuring, maintenance, up keeping of the instruments equipments, laboratories, gymnasium instruments etc. They ensure the maximum utilization of the available facilities and resources. The institution has a committee for sports activities as well. The committee ensures the maximum participation of our students in intercollegiate, inter group, university level sports events and accordingly sports equipments and materials are provided to students. Various science departments, computer science department and language departments take care of their respective labs. The faculty and support staff of the respective departments is accountable for the procurement maintenances and maximum utilization of the available equipments, resources and physical facilities of their departments.